Eligibility

To be eligible for admission, you must have 69 transferable semester units from one or more universities, community colleges or other regionally-accredited institutions. These transferable units must fulfill the lower-division general education requirements. If you have fewer than 69 (60-68.9) units, you may still be conditionally admitted to the program.

To see if your courses from a California Community College will transfer to Cal State Fullerton, visit ASSIST.org.

For more information about unit requirements, general education requirements and conditional admission, visit our Requirements page: extension.fullerton.edu/onlinedegrees/hssdegree/requirements.aspx.
